Death on the Road.

ACCRINGTON MAN'S SAD END.

The death took place yesterday, with painful uddenness, of Mr. John Thomas Eastwood who resided with his son at 73, Spring Hill-rd Accrington. The deceased, who was 63 year of age, had for about a month been stayin with relatives at Burnley, and yesterday morn ing he started out to walk to Accrington t call upon his sons, one of whom is Mr. George Eastwood, of Warner-street, secretary of the Accrington Canine Association Shortly before noon Mr. Haworth, farmer, of Westall Farm, Hapton, discovered the body of the deceased lying on the road near Cronker Wood, Hapton. It is surmised that deceased had a heart seizure and died sud denly, as only a short time previously he had been seen walking along the road.

The body was removed to the Bridge House Hotel, Hapton, and papers found in the
